People and Pleasant Events

Looks Very Fine.

The owners and manager of the Kentucky theater are to be congratulated on the clean, artistic and attractive appearance it presents. Last night was the first time the Kentucky had been thrown open to the public since it was repaired and repainted and it is prettier than when it was brand new. The decorations are in every way what they should be in a house of the value and reputation of the Kentucky theater, and it goes without saying that the people of Paducah will like them very much.

Manager T. W. Roberts announces that with the opening of the regular season the box office will be open from 9 a. m. continuously until 5 p. m. including the noon hour, which will be a great convenience to the public.

Married at Cairo.
